SSPH+ Scientific Debates: “Health in all Sustainable Development Goals”

SSPH+ invites YOU to vote for your favourite scientific debate to be showcased live at the upcoming Dubai Expo in January 2022!

As part of the scientific debate training of the Expo Dubai training program, students who took part in the course produced a scientific debate video that tackled scientifically relevant public health debates related to sustainable development goals. The lay- audiences of the Swiss Pavilion of the Dubai Expo and online viewers will see it. The debate team with the most votes wins the chance to perform their debate also LIVE at the Swiss Pavilion of the Expo in Dubai!

Your vote: There are four scientific debate videos of 6-minutes each to choose from. Please watch the videos and submit your vote for your favourite scientific debate here.

Who can vote? You may vote if you are a student of any academic career level or faculty member at any of the 12 partner institutions and universities of SSPH+.

Voting closes 30.09.2021! Make your vote count!
